

Orientation and Counselling Session of First- year Students

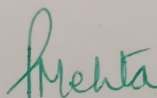

LBS Govt College, Saraswati Nagar, Sawara welcomed its new batch for session 2025-26 and conducted Orientation and Counselling Session for first -year students. It was conducted on 4 July 2025 at 10:45 am; for students of Humanities, Commerce, Science, B.Voc & BCA in respective venue assigned to each faculty according to notice issued by Dean of Studies dated 2 July 2025. The session aimed to familiarise the new students with college environment, academic expectations, student support services and offered an initial guidance to help them transition smoothly into college life. The session had following objective:

- It introduced students to the college's academic structure, rules and regulations.
- It guided students about various Scholarship, Clubs, Committees, Hostel and Societies.
- It created awareness and introduced CBCS System and it's functioning in the college through a well-knit PPT.
- It introduced all the faculty members in their respective streams and guided students about their subjects and career options in it.

The session began at 10:45 am with a welcome address by Dean Studies. It was followed by oral presentations by Dean Student Welfare, Dean Admission and Result and Dean Studies. They all deliberated on attendance rules, grading system, examination system, co -curricular and extra co-curricular activities and Dean Studies presented a detailed PPT on CBCS in which she highlighted the flexible and student centric approach to higher education in it. It provided choice for students to select from the prescribed courses, skill courses with credit system. The script and pattern regarding end terms examination and IA too was clearly demonstrated to the students.

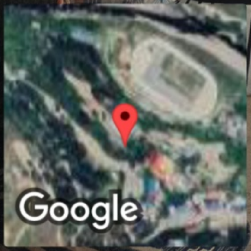

The session was well received by the students. Many expressed that the orientation and counselling helped reduce stress and anxiety. It gave them a clearer understanding of college life and its rules and regulations for their holistic and inclusive development.
