Analysis of feedback from the students:

1. It was found that on average 90% of syllabi were covered in the class.

2. There is always effective communication between teachers and students.

3. The institution often take active interest in promoting internship and field visits opportunities for students.

4. Teachers regularly informs students about expected competencies, course outcome and programme outcomes.

5. Teachers are usually able to identify students weakness and help them to overcome it.

6. It is observed that 80% of teachers use ICT –tools for teaching.

7. The teachers usually illustrates the concepts through example and applications.

Proforma based Feedback analysis had been tried for first time. In future more parameters will be taken into consideration , so that more logical conclusion is drawn.